Eastern Star Celebrates Twentieth Birthday Tuesday

Twenty years of progress in fraternal life will be marked next Tuesday evening, when Andover chapter 187, Order of the Eastern Star, will celebrate its anniversary and annual guest night.

The organization was founded on October 25, 1922, through Fidelity chapter in Haverhill. Mrs. Alice C. Morrison, formerly of Andover and now residing in Detroit, Mich., was its first matron during the 1923 season, and Dr. Elwin D. Lane, since deceased, its first patron. It is interesting to note that all past matrons, and all except three past patrons, are still alive and active in the organization.

Present Eastern Star officers include Mrs. John J. Conway, worthy matron; John J. Conway, worthy patron; Miss Nellie Irvine, associate matron; Lewis C. Rokes, associate patron; Miss Bertha R. Cuthill, secretary; Mrs. Frances T. Wade, treasurer; Mrs. Irene W. Clemons, conductress; Mrs. Chris-

Tower, Haggerty, Get Commissions Tomorrow

The climax of a long program of study for two Andover boys who have successfully worked their way up from the army ranks will be reached tomorrow morning, when John E. Haggerty of Ballardvale, and Oswald Tower, Jr., of 78 Chestnut street, receive commissions as second lieutenants in the army medical corps.

Haggerty is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Timothy S. Haggerty of Andover street, and was educated at the local public schools. He graduated from Puncard high school in 1936, where he was prominent in all school activities and a class officer. More recently, he had attended Suffolk Law School.

Local Defense Pleases Farley

State Director Praises Local Civilian Workers

In a recent letter to Atty. Alan T. Polgreen, chairman of the local committee on public safety, Executive Director J. Wells Farley of the state committee expressed himself as quite satisfied with Andover's defense preparations. Mr. Farley, with members of his staff, made a personal visit and tour of inspection of the local report center on May 12. The text of the letter was:

"I tried to say, probably very inadequately, how great a lift it gave me to see all over the state, the interest, hard work, and thought that everyone was giving to the work of the committee.

"It was good to get a chance to see you, and I only hope that it did some part of the good to the organization that it did to me to get in personal touch with you and the others that are doing so much.

"My best to you, and I shall hope to have a chance to see you again as soon as possible."

Conservation being as important as it is, the local committee has also made public suggestions for the proper use of tires recently received from Howard L. Jenkins, director of Region 4. Mr. Jenkins points out that, on any car, the left front tire gets 14 percent of the total wear; the right front, 19 percent; left rear, 29 percent, and right rear, 38 percent.

Local Ensign Is Naval Hero

Elwood Chase's Exploit Thrills Parents, Wife

News that Ensign Elwood Norton Chase of Andover was the first to spot an enemy submarine off Martinique, and the first to drop bombs upon it, excited and thrilled his wife and parents here, who heard the news over the radio last night. According to sketchy Navy department reports, the action took place yesterday, and the submarine, of Italian registry, was believed to be the same one that had unsuccessfully torpedoed a U. S. warship recently.

Strangely enough, Ensign Chase's exploit took place on his third wedding anniversary, since he was married to the former Miss Clara Holland, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chester W. Holland of Chestnut street on May 27, 1939. The young naval hero is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Garfield S. Chase of Canterbury street, Shawsheen.

Though he was far from home, and on extremely perilous duty, Ensign Chase had not forgotten the anniversary, but had thoughtfully sent ahead a remembrance so that it would reach his wife on the exact date. In yesterday morning's mail, Mrs. Chase received a letter from him, and several gifts. As she remarked this morning, the news of her husband's exploit was hardly a more pleasant surprise.

Ensign and Mrs. Chase have one daughter, Susan, nine months old. Mrs. Chase is a graduate of Abbot Academy and the Erskine School, Boston.

No direct information has been received either by Mrs. Chase or the Navy flier's parents concerning the sinking of the submarine. Both got their first news from press and radio reports.

According to Mrs. Chase, she heard the first report of the incident on the radio last night, while at the Chestnut street home of her parents. With her at the time were her mother and brother, Robert C. Holland. Her father, the well-known

As is the policy throughout the state, Andover's rationing board began Tuesday the task of sending out questionnaires to some of the holders of the X gasoline rationing cards issued them at the recent registration. In an endeavor to find out whether Andover cannot get along on less gasoline than was indicated by some of the drivers, 101 questionnaires are now being sent out to local automobile owners.

About 60 X cards have been turned in to the rationing board in exchange for cards entitling them to lesser amounts of gasoline, according to Chairman J. Everett Collins of the rationing board, and cards in any one of the B classes have been issued them.

Either the X card or the completed questionnaire must be returned to the board within three days of its receipt, and this will complete the investigation. If no response is made within that period, the name of the car owner will be submitted to the state rationing headquarters for suitable action.

Less than half the local holders of X cards are being queried, since only 101 questionnaires are being mailed out and there are about 250 X cards in circulation.

The questionnaire consists of five parts; it asks for what purpose the owner stated he used his vehicle and what percentage of the use of that vehicle was for the listed purpose between January 1 and April 1, April 1 and May 1, May 1 and May 12, and May 12 to date. In answering each of the last four questions, the owner is asked to state in detail the character of the daily use of the motor vehicle for the purpose mentioned.

RECEIVE DEGREES AT BOSTON UNIVERSITY

WILLIAM S. HANNON

Seven Andover residents received their degrees at the commencement exercises of Boston University, held Monday morning in the Boston Arena. Each degree was presented by President Daniel L. Marsh, and the principal speaker of the morning was Paul V. McNutt, administrator of the Federal Security Agency and chairman of the War Manpower Commission.

Among the local graduates were: Miss Helen Marcia Beer, 3 Summer street, who received the degree of Bachelor of Science in Physical Education, with a certificate in physiotherapy at the Sargent College of Physical Education. Miss Beer was one of the outstanding members of her class, being president of the Honor Auxiliary, class president, class vice-president, and member of the basketball team, Black Masque, class dance committee, Returnmoe club and Tumblers club. She is a graduate of Pynchard high school, where she was chairman of the social committee for the class of 1937.

Andrew Munroe Innes of Haggitt's Pond road, president and valedictorian of the class of 1937 at Pynchard, received his degree of Bachelor of Science in Business Administration, in the special field of insurance. He was a dean's list member at B. U., and a member of Beta Gamma Sigma and the Insurance club.

William Stephen Hannon of 63 High street, also a Pynchard graduate, received his Bachelor of Arts degree in the College of Liberal Arts, his special field being biology. His class activities included Lambda, the class executive committee, dean's list, Newman club and Senior week committee.

Mrs. Ferne Whitney Hansen, A. B., of 7 Dumbarton street, Shawshen, received her Master of Education degree at the School of Education. She received her A.B. degree at Northwestern University, Evanston, Ill., several years ago, and has recently been teaching in the local schools.

Howard Douglas Mailey, A.B., of 63 Salem street, received his degree as Doctor of Medicine at the School of Medicine. He was a member of Kappa Sigma and the All-University Interfaith council; president of the American association of medical students, and member of the School of Medicine glee club.

Mrs. Alfa G. McCabe, B.S., of Holt road, received her Master's degree in Education at the School of Education. Ralph C. Sturke, B.S. in Ed., of 72 Whittier street, also received his master's degree. Formerly a teacher in the local Junior high school, he recently assumed the post of superintendent of schools in North Reading.

Plan Memorial Day Exercises

Andover's first wartime observance of Memorial Day, appropriately enough, will take place Saturday under true wartime conditions and restrictions. For this year at least, visits to all cemeteries by the parade will be curtailed, but exercises will be held in various parts of Spring Grove cemetery by the participating patriotic organizations.

Saturday's parade, in three divisions, will assemble in the Square at 8:30. At 8:45, assembly will be sounded at the Memorial Hall library, and all divisions will move to that location for services scheduled at 9:00. Exercises there will be conducted by Rev. Frederick B. Noss, pastor of the South church.

Simultaneous with the observance on the library steps, a special G. A. R. service will be held inside the library. Sons, daughters, relatives and friends, as well as past and present members of G. A. R. organizations, have been invited to be present, and those desiring to attend will assemble on the second floor of the library between 8:30 and 8:45. While Andover still had Civil War veterans, they never failed to hold commemoration exercises in this place on Memorial Day.

At approximately 9:20, the parade will move south along Main street, to the Memorial Tower at Salem street, where Scott H. Paradise of the Phillips Academy faculty will speak. At 10:00 the marchers will traverse Phillips and Abbot streets to the main entrance of Spring Grove cemetery.

At the cemetery, the parade divisions will separate, Division 1 going to the Veteran's or Legion lot in the east section, where Very Rev. Thomas B. Austin, O.S.A., pastor of St. Augustine's church, will deliver a short address. Division 2 will march to the Shorten lot in the cemetery's west section, where the V. F. W. ritual will be conducted by Commander George F. Symonds, assisted by other officers of the local post, including Harold Cates, senior vice-commander; Ira Buxton, chaplain; Walter Ebersbach, junior vice-commander, and Edward Dodge, officer of the day.

The British Empire War Veterans and other organizations in Division 3 will assemble at the Cargill lot in the southerly part of the cemetery, where Capt. L. Denis Peterkin, honorary commander, and Rev. Herman C. Johnson, minister at the Free church, will speak.

All three exercises will be limited to ten minutes each, and at their completion, all units will reassemble at the southerly end of the cemetery, then moving to the Soldier's lot on the main drive, where a united service will be conducted under the supervision of Commander Symonds, chief marshal of the parade.

The complete order of march:

Platoon of police.

Chief marshal.

Aides from each division.

FIRST DIVISION
American Legion Junior Drum Corps.

American Legion Post 8.
American Legion Auxiliary.
Sons of American Legion.
All Andover Girl Scout units.

SECOND DIVISION

Sons of Union Veterans.
Women's Relief Corps.
Auxiliary to Sons of Veterans.
All local Boy Scout units.

THIRD DIVISION
Clan MacPherson Pipe band.
British Empire War Veterans.
B. E. W. V. auxiliary.
Andover's memorial exercises began last Sunday morning, when local patriotic organizations attended the morning service at the West church, where Rev. Donald H. Savage, church minister, preached on the subject, "In Memory of the Future."

Exercises commemorating the sailor dead took place Sunday afternoon at the river bridge on Stevens street, under the direction of the ladies' auxiliary to the Walter L. Raymond camp, Sons of Veterans, with Mrs. Henry S. Wright in charge. Rev. Donald H. Savage spoke movingly of the place freedom of the seas has in the American democratic structure, and of the men in the town's history who have given their lives to defend it. Also taking part in the exercises were the Pynchard Girls' band and the Legion Bugle and Drum corps.

Abbot Academy Will Graduate 62 Monday

Probably 62 students, including Marilyn Barlow, Marjorie Dean and Margaret McFarlan of Andover, will receive their diplomas from Abbot Academy Monday morning at 10:15 at the South church. Rev. Theodore Cuyler Speers, D.D., of New York city, will be the Commencement speaker.

The graduation ceremony will be preceded by the traditional tree and ivy planting ceremonies.

Abbot officially closes for the summer on Monday afternoon. For the first time in many years, no students will be returning for College Board examinations, which were waived this year and April "achievement and aptitude" tests substituted in their place. The faculty will be leaving during the early part of the week, and school will reopen on Tuesday, September 22.

Guard Unit To Get State Recognition

By next Sunday members of the Andover unit of the State Guard will be equipped with their new summer uniforms. Plans have been made for representatives of the adjutant general's office to inspect the unit on June 7 for the purpose of state recognition. After this recognition is granted, the Andover unit will be assigned a number and attached to the 24th Infantry, M. S. G.

The newly organized company has accepted an invitation to participate in the Flag Day parade on June 14. Recent reports indicate that the adjutant general's staff is pleased with the progress of this company under the command of Lieut. H. Garrison Holt. Lieut. Holt feels that if the people of the town could see how the members have responded to military training, they would be proud of the precision of the local unit, considering that organization started in March. Much credit goes, too, to the ability of the non-commissioned officers and the willingness of the men to learn.

There are still vacancies in the organization, and men who wish to enlist in this unit for local defense are urged to do so. Enlistments are taken every Sunday morning at the Memorial gymnasium at 10:00. Men enlisting now will have a good chance of being in uniform before the Flag Day parade.

RECITAL PLANNED

The annual recital by the pupils of Mrs. Frederick C. Smith will take place at her home, 61 Chestnut street, tomorrow afternoon at 4:00. The following children will take part: Priscilla and Audrey Tompkins, Marilyn Addis, Edward Lawson, Robert Gagne, George Collins, Joan Davis, Joseph Byrne, William Merchant, Elaine Maclellan, Helen Dowd.

Commissioned

The commissions will be presented at the army's medical field service school, at Carlisle Barracks, Pa., by Brig. Gen. Addison D. Davis, assistant surgeon general of the army. About 240 commissions will be presented to candidates from 37 states.

Phillips Commencement Week Program Announced

The complete Commencement Week program was recently announced by Phillips Academy authorities, and will be held during the week beginning June 7. The principal feature of the exercises will be an address by Dr. Charles Seymour, LL.D., before the Cum Laude society at 10:30 on June 12 at Cochran Chapel.

The program will begin Sunday in Cochran Chapel at 4:30, when the baccalaureate sermon will be given by Dr. Claude M. Fuess, headmaster. On Wednesday at 10:00 in George Washington Hall, the annual prize awards will be made. Class day will be held on Thursday exercises being held at 3:30 in George Washington Hall, followed by a reception by Dr. and Mrs. Fuess at their home, class reunion dinners at 6:30 in the school dining hall and at Williams Hall, step singing at 7:30 at Samuel Phillips Hall, and a moving picture program in the George Washington meeting room.

The graduation itself takes place on Friday, June 12. The procession will form at 10:00 at Samuel Phillips Hall, and proceed to Cochran chapel at 10:30. Following Dr. Seymour's address, the prizes, scholarships and diplomas will be awarded. At 12:30, a ladies' luncheon will be held at the Commons, and the alumni luncheon will take place at 1:00 in the Case Memorial building. The program will close with the annual baseball game between the alumni and varsity nines at 3:00 on Brothers field.

Farley Impressed

In view of this, it is recommended that, every 5,000 miles, the tires be changed as follows: the right rear to the left front; left rear to right front; left front to left rear; spare to right rear. The right front, by these changes, becomes the spare. People who have adopted this procedure for several years claim that they always get 35,000 miles on five tires.

The committee also suggests that car owners make a record of the brand, size and serial number of their tires, since, in the event of theft, the information will help the police department in making recovery.

Current rumors that paper mills using waste paper have more than they can use, and that the surplus is straining storage and transportation facilities, even though many people are still carefully saving waste paper, have occasioned this answer from John I. Taylor, Jr., executive secretary of the salvage division on the state committee:

"Due to the tremendous success of the waste paper drive and the ready response of the people, a situation has resulted which places a temporary strain on transportation and storage facilities, and has created a temporary surplus. We now want people to put into the collection of scrap metals and rubber the same energy which marked their participation in the paper drive. However, it is important that we go on saving and accumulating paper for future collection, because the present situation is entirely temporary."

Miss Esther Cairnie of High street is enjoying her annual vacation from her duties in the Tyer Rubber company office.

THE ANDOVER TOWNSMAN, May 28, 1942

CEMETERY CLOSED TO AUTOS MEMORIAL DAY

On account of narrow roads and heavy auto traffic within the Spring Grove cemetery, and excessive damage done the past few years, the cemetery gates will be closed to all automobiles from 9:00 until after the veterans' service on Memorial Day morning.

Arrangements have been made to take care of any late arrivals for out-of-town lot owners who have heavy baskets to place on lots, but entrance otherwise between these hours will be on foot only.

S. A. R. Color Guard In Flag Day Exercises

At the monthly dinner meeting of the General Joseph Frye chapter Sons of the American Revolution, held at the Andover Inn recently, Captain C. Wesley Patten, past president of the state society, presented the chapter with 12 General Knox artillery uniforms and several Revolutionary muskets, sabers, and Colonial flags, to be used by the members of the Continental color guard.

Since Flag Day was first inaugurated by the Sons of the American Revolution, the chapter voted to have the color guard make their first public appearance in the local Flag Day exercises.

Twenty-five members and guests heard a message from Mrs. Herbert McQuesten, state vice-regent of the D. A. R., and Mrs. Paul Hinch of the Methuen Samuel Adams chapter, D. A. R., was also a guest at the meeting.

It was announced that the S. A. R. good citizenship awards will be made as soon as the winners are chosen in the Greater Lawrence public high schools. Following the close of the regular business, colored pictures on West Point were shown.

Service Club To Hold Annual Meeting Tonight

Members of the Andover Service Club took one look at the circular sent out by Secretary Walter E. Billings this week, and hastily began to check over their past misdemeanors, great and small. A pretty official looking document, it was headed "court order," and began, in the too-familiar way, "You are hereby summoned to appear before a jury of your peers on Thursday, May 28, 1942. . ."

They were probably considerably relieved, on reading through their "summons," to find that the order was merely to appear at the annual meeting of the club tonight at the Square and Compass Club, dinner to be served at 6:15. The speaker of the evening will be Assistant Attorney General Frank G. Volpe, who undoubtedly will have some interesting comments to make on the recent job-selling cases in Lawrence, of whose prosecution he was in charge.

Officers for next season are to be elected at the meeting.

Andover Post, 2128, Veterans of Foreign Wars, takes this opportunity to thank all of its friends who contributed to making its annual Poppy day a grand success. With their assistance, the post's comfort committee will be able to continue sending "bundles of cheer" to an ever-growing list of Andover boys serving America.

The Girls' band made its first appearance since the football season in the fall. The girls marched from Elm square to the Stevens bridge to take part in the Memorial Sunday exercises for the sailor dead with the other organizations, and, during the ceremony, played "The Star Spangled Banner" and "America." Wednesday of this week the band also journeyed to Lowell where they participated in Field Day events with Lowell High band.

Another excellent appearance of the band is expected Memorial Day. Like last year, they will march in the parade's line of march.

On Monday, Lane K. Newberry showed a few of his excellent paintings to the Punchard and Junior High students. His subject was "How Artists Get that Way." He explained to the interested audience why art in all forms should be almost as important to the people as it is to the artist himself. Mr. Newberry had with him a device which changed the paintings on display easily and efficiently. Mr. Lane is a native of the Midwest, and he related the story of the journey of the Mormons to that part of the country.

Mrs. Ethel B. Watson, violin teacher, is at the Massachusetts Memorial Hospital, Boston, following a major operation performed there. She is well known in Andover through her violin classes in the public schools.

MISS ANDOVER

One of Andover's most popular young ladies, as well as one of Andover's youngest popular ladies, celebrated her birthday in style this week—her third birthday in fact—when little Jane Frances Young of Andover street was hostess at a party attended by 75 young friends.

The group held an outdoor hot dog and hamburger roast, and punch, cake and ice cream was served by Frances' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter J. Young, assisted by Miss Ruth Saunders.

Many gifts were received by little Miss Young, including an electric phonograph and a set of records. Now she's spending a good deal of her time listening to such perennial favorites as "Little Boy Blue" and "Jack and Jill."

ALL OUT EFFORT

Andover Women Needed

Andover women from 18 to 50 years old, and in good health, may have a chance to serve their country as a trained volunteer by enrolling in the Nurses' Aide corps. One hundred thousand nurses aides are needed by the Red Cross now, since there is a shortage of registered and practical nurses throughout the country.

Local women interested are asked to visit, phone or write to Mrs. Henry Dearborn of the Andover Red Cross chapter, telephone 94, for information or application blanks. The next training class is to begin at the Lawrence General Hospital within a month.

Red Cross Notes

War puts a limit on all consumer goods, even those destined for the armed forces, and the making of surgical dressings for the Red Cross by local women comes to a temporary halt this week due to lack of materials. A new quota will arrive later, however, notice of which will be published in the Townsman. Incidentally, the surgical dressing committee of the local chapter wished to thank all those who have given so generously of their time and effort during the past months.

Work is still proceeding, however, on other materials for the armed forces, such as knitted garments. And from across the water, in Somerset, England, to the secretary of the local chapter comes another indication of the work the Red Cross is accomplishing:

"The Women's Auxiliary Service of this town has asked me to write to you. They have been showing me some of the things you and the members of the chapter have sent to those of our people who have been in bombed areas. The sweaters, made so beautifully and to fit all sizes, show much hard work and kindly thought, and it is with a very full heart that I sit down to send these few lines to add my thanks. We are indeed most grateful. . . ."

Yours truly,

Gertrude W. Shell.

Local people wanting to learn about the various Red Cross activities going on throughout the country would do well to listen to a broadcast of twice-weekly radio programs, entitled "Thus We Live," on CBS stations Thursdays and Fridays at 9:45 in the morning.

An assembly was held Friday in honor of Memorial day, under the direction of Miss Elizabeth Stephan of Room 3. The following program was presented:

Piano solo—Barbara Hill; Governor's proclamation—Louise Doyle; recitation, "Our Soldiers"—Marion White; trumpet solo, "Tenting Tonight"—Tom Churchill; recitation, "Requiem"—Edith Ambye; piano solos, "A Long, Long Trail" and "Pack Up Your Troubles"—Barbara Hill; play, "The Colors Salute Today"—first speaker, Edward O'Connor; second speaker, Charles Bradley; first flag bearer, Carol Davies; second flag bearer, Helen Dowd; third flag bearer, Shirley Sawyer; chorus, Paula Dimlich, Patty Barnard, Ruth Brimer, Ruth Gillespie, Melissa Irwin, William Doyle, William Valentine, James Lefebvre, Warren Kiefer, Hector Pattullo; flag pledge.

We would like to welcome Howard Leighton of West Roxbury to the seventh grade, Division 3.

The sale of war stamps during the week amounted to $91.80, bringing our total to $1,613.70.

We were very sorry to hear that Mrs. Cecelia Derrah is going to leave the Junior high at the end of the year, but we all wish her happiness.

As usual at our final assembly of the year, D. A. R. medals will be presented to the girl and boy in the ninth grade who rate highest in scholarship, leadership, sportsmanship, loyalty and co-operation. The ninth grade teachers are now considering the candidates for these high honors.

cashier at the Andover National Bank, was outside at the time, but listening to his automobile radio. Hearing the news, he ran into the house only to find that his family was listening to the same broadcast.

Ensign Chase was educated at Pynchard high school and Governor Dummer academy in South Byfield, and attended Brown University for three years prior to entering the Navy in 1937. He took the complete course at Pensacola, Fla., and was afterwards sent to Norfolk, Va., with a training squadron. For a time, he was stationed on the battleship U. S. S. Arkansas as pilot of a catapult plane.

In January, 1941, he was sent to the Squantum naval air base as instructor of a patrol squadron, continuing these duties until July. Since then, he had been stationed in the Caribbean area. Only yesterday, word was received here that he had left Puerto Rico for an unknown destination.

Mrs. Chase, the flier's mother, said this morning that yesterday was "the day of her life." Both she and Mrs. Elwood Chase have been kept busy all morning answering congratulatory messages by telephone, many of them coming as pleasant surprises from people with whom they have been out of touch for years.

BALLARDVALE

Calendar For June

June 1—meeting at Bradlee school for parents of grades 4, 5, and 6 pupils.

June 4—P. T. A. meeting.

June 9—registration of pupils entering Bradlee.

June 14—children's day program at Union Congregational church.

June 19—Friendly Guild meeting.

June 21—Masonic day at Union Congregational church.

Parents Meet Monday

An important meeting for parents of pupils of the 4th, 5th, and 6th grade pupils will be held Monday evening at 7:30 in the Bradlee school. Superintendent of schools Edward I. Erickson will discuss the school situation, and all parents are urged to attend.

Local Boys Graduate

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Rogge of Ballardvale road leave Saturday for New York, where they will attend their son John's graduation exercises at Columbia university.

Mr. and Mrs. Timothy Haggerty of Clark road are spending the week in Orange, N. J., and on Friday will attend the graduation of their son John from the officers' training school at Carlisle Barracks, Pa.

P. T. A. To Elect

The election of officers for the Vale P. T. A. will be held next Thursday at its June meeting. Reports for the year will be read.

Personals

Mr. and Mrs. Chaplin and family are now occupying their new home on High street.

Miss Verniece Moody of Andover street, a student at Sargent college, is spending a month at Peterborough, N. H.

Mrs. Bruce Acker and daughter Susan are visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Walter MacTammany.

Memorial exercises are to be held at the Bradlee school Friday.

ADDRESSES OBSERVERS

Arthur Coleman, prominent in local American Legion circles and district director of the army aircraft warning service for an area including most of Essex county, spoke to a large gathering of local aircraft observers in the Free church parish house last night at 8:00.

Mr. Coleman touched on various aspects of the warning service's work, and warned that it is due to become more important than ever in view of recent statements by officials that an invasion, bombing, or mass sabotage in this region is an entirely logical thing to expect. Following his discussion, he answered numerous questions from the floor by interested members of the large audience.

Previous plans had been for an army officer from the Manchester air base to address the group, but, in view of present conditions, none could be spared for the task.

Miss Joyce Hansen, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Lorenz I. Hansen of Dumbarton street, will spend the summer at Crater Lake National Park in Oregon, where she will be employed under government supervision with four other students from Redlands University in California, where she is a student.

CURRENT—Old Abbot House Open To Visitors

Andover residents who have long wanted to take a look into the old Abbot house on the corner of Andover street and Argilla road will be interested to hear that the house is now occupied by a custodian, Miss Irene Cushing, who will gladly show it to any interested visitors. There will be no charge, and everyone is invited to inspect the building, which has recently been renovated.

Only forty years after the founding of the town of Andover, a Benjamin Abbot, with his bride, Sarah Holt, moved into their new home. The house was a simple one with only two rooms, one above the other. A great fireplace served both for cooking and heating.

Benjamin II also lived here with his family, but more living space became necessary when his daughter Sarah married James Holt, and shared the homestead with her parents. Evidently two rooms were added on the other side of the chimney about this time. The bedroom over the "Great Room" was refinished about 1745, and later the ell was added, the well room, and the present kitchen, until the house took on the form it has today.

In the restoration of the old landmark, it has been the aim to bring back the various rooms as far as possible to the period in which they were constructed.

SATURDAY—Memorial Service In West Parish

A memorial service in memory of the soldier and civilian dead buried in the West Parish cemetery, and for persons who are unable to attend the service in the center of town, will be held in the cemetery chapel Saturday morning at 10:00.

Rev. Donald H. Savage, pastor of the West church, will be in charge of the service, and will deliver a brief address. Prayer will be offered by Rev. Newman Matthews, pastor emeritus. Miss Marion Abbott will preside at the organ, and Mrs. John Fielding will be soloist.

JUNE 11—Punchard Alumni Get-Together

Possibly several hundred Punchard alumni will return to the old school on the evening of June 11, when the annual banquet of the alumni association will be held in the school cafeteria. Dinner will be served at 6:30, and the business of the evening will include the election of officers for the coming season and reunions of the anniversary classes.

Speakers of the evening will include Dr. Charles H. Eames, president of Lowell Textile Institute and a Punchard graduate with the class of 1893; Edward I. Erickson, superintendent of schools; and Eugene V. Lovely, principal of Punchard high school. Dancing to the music of Harold Phinney's recordings will be enjoyed after the meeting.

Miss Everdike Thiras, acting president of the association, is supervising arrangements for the event, assisted by members of the executive committee, from whom tickets at $1.00 may be obtained.

FLAG DAY—2000 To March In Parade

Any attempt to describe Andover's Flag Day parade on June 14 would seem to resemble that well-known ad for a certain brand of liquor—it's growing bigger and bigger by the moment. At the present time, it seems as if more than 2000 persons will be in the line of march. Included in them will be the Girl Scouts and Boy Scouts; all civilian defense groups, including the Red Cross, fire and police auxiliaries, State Guard, and aircraft warning service; local patriotic organizations like the British War Veterans, Sons of the American Revolution, Veterans of Foreign Wars, American Legion and its auxiliary; and commercial groups like the Shawsheen Mills, Shawsheen Laundry, Shawsheen Garage, Marland Mills and Tyler Rubber Company.

An enthusiastic committee meeting, held in the Legion rooms Tuesday night, indicated complete cooperation from the community. The committee made what seems bound to be a very popular decision in appointing Police Officer John Deyermund as chief marshal of the parade, in view of the fact that he has four sons serving in four branches of the armed forces, another in the State Guard.

Parents of sons who have died in service during the war will lead the parade, followed by the parents of those now in service, and those who have acquired citizenship during the past year. Other assignments in the line of march will be announced later.

The parade is to form at or near the public park at 2:30 Sunday afternoon, June 14. The route to be covered will be from Whittier street to Summer, to Elm, to Main, to Morton, to Bartlet, and back to the starting point.

Dr. Alfred E. Stearns, retired headmaster of Phillips Academy, will give the featured address. Selectman Roy E. Hardy, as master of ceremonies, will direct the other activities, including a prayer, a welcome to new citizens, mass pledge of allegiance to the flag and the singing of the national anthem. It is expected that the entire program will be concluded at 4:00.

Milton Jackson of South Main street, who has been connected with the John Carter company, paper merchants, in Boston, has accepted a position in Washington with the field service of the American Red Cross.

Abbot Alumnae Meet Saturday

Mrs. Mildred Frost Eaton will preside at the annual meeting of the Abbot alumnae association Saturday, at 2:30. Following the election of new officers, a tea will be held in the alumnae headquarters in the John Esther Gallery. Miss Frances McTernan is in charge of the arrangements. The alumnae banquet will take place in Bailey hall with Miss Marguerite Hearsey, principal, and the school trustees, as guests of honor.

Ten classes are holding reunions. For their fifty-fifth reunion, two members are coming some distance, Miss Harriet Thwing from Hudson, Ohio, and Mrs. Eliza Atwell Browne from Sewickley, Pa. Mrs. Mary Beal Stephenson is coming from Duluth, Minn., for her fiftieth anniversary.

Mrs. Laura Cheever Downs, general chairman of Alumnae Day arrangements, is assisted by Mrs. Elizabeth Dix Goddard. Mrs. Marion Mellor Dean is in charge of the banquet tickets, and Miss Carol Bullock is chairman of the Flower Committee. Alumnae who have not made reservations for the banquet are asked to do so at once at the alumnae office, Tel. 983-W.

The anniversary celebration is to be held in June instead of on the proper birthday, October 25, since other pressing business is on the organization's agenda for that period. The annual guest night of the society will also be held at Tuesday's meeting, and high-ranking state officials have been invited to attend.

The entertainment portion of the evening's program will be in charge of Mrs. Florence Thompson, P.M., and refreshments will be served under the direction of Mrs. Mabel Wadman, P.M., and Mrs. Jean Coutts.

A signal honor was conferred recently on Mrs. John J. Conway, worthy matron, when she was appointed grand representative for three years, to the state organization in Maryland, by the retiring grand matron of Massachusetts, Mrs. Mary F. McGoldrick. Since Masonry was first established in Maryland under the sponsorship of the Massachusetts grand chapter, this state has been officially represented in its councils ever since. Mrs. Conway, in her new position, will keep in constant touch with Maryland state officials, and visit the grand chapter session there.

How About The Other Fellow?

How's your gas holding out? Is it doing any better than your patience?

There's something about human beings that will make them willing to forego anything as long as everybody is sacrificing the same, but there's also something about them that makes them say, despite the fact that they know the purpose of the plan is good, "Why should I play the game fair if everybody else is cheating?"

If the gas rationing plan in New England isn't doing as well as it should, the blame can be placed on that feeling that "others are getting all the gas they want, why shouldn't I?" This feeling has a broad basis among New Englanders because they're sore as all get-out that people in most of the other states aren't being gas-rationed at all. You'd find that in these six states we'd feel proud to give up every drop of gas in the name of patriotism, if all the other states were doing the same, but it does make us peeved to think that outside of New England there are only a few other states, and only parts of some of them, that are receiving the same treatment. If there is an invasion of his continent, we're the ones that will get it first, and the Middle West will read about it in their papers; why shouldn't they be made to share some of the less difficult sacrifices of modern warfare? That's what we New Englanders wonder, and we can't help but feel that had the farm bloc been threatened with any such difficulty, the administration would have been more eager to solve the transportation problem forthwith.

Then in a less broad sense, the rationing plan isn't going so well because the fellow next door is getting away with murder, and others don't see why they shouldn't, too. There are so many real, honest, straightforward Americans who are trying hard, who are not misusing their privileges, but there are an awful lot who have friends at a gas station who "forget" to punch the rationing card, or "forget" to stop the pump in time. And that's the fault of the system, which fortunately will be rectified soon, it is understood. It was pretty poorly thought out—and there certainly was enough time to think it all out, carefully.

Do You Deserve It?

About sixty local musicians gave a most impressive performance last Friday night, in the final concert of the season by the Andover Community Orchestra. Several intricate and beautiful selections were included in the program, and the audience gave a most enthusiastic response to all of them.

In spite of the fact that the orchestra was pleased with the attendance, it was shockingly small considering the 11,000 who live here. Would that attendance mean that there are only a few hundred persons in the whole town who like good music, well played? Or that only a certain group is willing to support one of Andover's outstanding organizations?

How many other towns can you name that have their own art galleries and museums, or public concerts and lectures equal to those presented in Andover at least once monthly? Why was the audience so pitifully small at the recent concert by the Andover Male Choir, or at the lectures this year by such distinguished writers as William Lyons Phelps, Cecil Roberts and Archibald MacLeish?

The present war is being fought for just such things as these, in addition to our own freedom and safety. Concerts, exhibitions, lectures, books, are our main indications of free and progressive thought. Far too few of our residents realize that they are most welcome to enjoy a variety of entertainment equalled by no other New England community north of Boston.

We are obliged to report too often that "a small but enthusiastic audience attended" a particular event. We often wonder how long the various local groups are going to continue playing to "small but enthusiastic audiences." And we sometimes think that Andover does not at all deserve the excellent things it gets.

Henry A. Bodwell

The world has too few men like Henry Bodwell, and Andover was fortunate to count him as one of her own. His public service to the town cannot be measured by the years he spent on the various boards, for others have spent as much and done but little. Henry Bodwell was not just a board member, he was an outstanding board member, one whose opinions were well worth listening to and well worth following. To look over the list of officials of the past three decades would be to find many men who, by the queer quirks of political life, had found their way into office, men who were far from being the type we needed. But outstanding in that list was the name of Henry Bodwell, for he was solid, he was clear-thinking, he was sound. To his family we extend our sympathy at their loss of a husband and father; to the town we extend our sympathy at its loss of a fine servant and a real leader.

Don't Be Scared

Very few people seem to grasp the idea that we just won't publish unsigned communications, however worthy the thought contained therein? If you think something is worth publishing, what's wrong with signing your name to it? If it's good, you'll be told so; if it's bad you'll be more than told so. But at any rate, you've been courageous enough to let people know that you thought that way.

This Sober Town

Just where is the Townsman Press, Inc.? We wish we knew; in fact, we honestly don't know. Some address us at 2 Park street, some at No. 6. Our own arbitrary designation is 4; we don't want to be confused if confusion were possible, with another publishing company, Houghton Mifflin, at 2 Park street—down Boston way. And, if our memory doesn't fail us, its 2 Park avenue, New York, that the magazine, Boy's Life, comes out of.

One of these days when we have nothing better to do, we are going to look up the exact pronunciation, spelling, and strategic location of such newsworthy spots as Kerch, Bryansk, Viazma, the Salween river, and way points to Port Moresby. The office expert comes in each day with eyes aglitter to inform us that the Japs have crossed the Salween river, or the Russians have passed through Smolensk, Sevastopol and Kharkov. We don't know whether to say "That's good" or "That's bad."

As a matter of fact, we didn't know, till we cornered the expert the other day, that Kerch and Kursk were different places, and that Madagascar and Martinique are separated by some thousand miles.

And it strikes us that we haven't heard much from Tobruk lately. In months gone past, it seemed to us that that unhappy community changed hands oftener than a chip in a poker game.

We observe that the traffic lights in the Phillips Academy region on Main street have been blacked out for the duration. The risks have been so covered that light shows only through a small horizontal slit.

That shows what a serious war this is. Officials can't make light of anything, even traffic standards. Down Boston way, we see by the papers, a previously illuminated populace has reverted completely to the dark ages.

In an announcement reaching our desk Tuesday, our old friend, former Lieut. Gov. Francis E. Kelley stated that "I feel I can best be of service to my fellow man by again becoming a candidate for Governor of Massachusetts."

We reluctantly think there are many other ways in which he can be of service. However, his new candidacy stirs up in us a certain nostalgic feeling for the old pre-Salty days. The only person lacking to make our political happiness complete is the beloved James Michael. We have half a mind to prevail upon our friends to prevail upon his friends to prevail upon him to run again.

We note with some dismay that George H. Winslow and Joseph DeAcutis are fishing together at Moosehead Lake, Me. We bet they won't have any fun at all.

Joe, you see, is the only man in town who is both an auxiliary policeman and an air raid warden—George surely won't dare tell him any of those fish stories. And if Joe tries to describe the big one that got away—well, George can just put him under oath.

And how does Joe happen to be both a warden and a policeman? Well, he's proprietor of the Shaw-sheen Manor, and thus the proper person to look out for its guests in any emergency. At the same time, his general handiness with guns and experience in the outdoors makes him a natural as an auxiliary police officer.

Sorry we called that fine young Navy flier "Ensign" Chase on another page; his actual rank is lieutenant, junior grade, and he's held it for quite a while. We received the information too late to make the proper correction in our front page.

Orchestra Presents Successful Concert

Last Friday night, the Andover Community Orchestra closed its first season of three concerts with a highly satisfactory performance of orchestral and pianoforte music before a surprisingly large audience in the Memorial Auditorium. Assisted by Miss Kate Friskin as soloist, who played a Mozart piano concerto with the orchestra, as well as a group of solo pieces, Conductor George Brown's musicians brought to a climax a year of constantly maintained enthusiasm and steady growth. In the face of the difficulties attendant upon gas rationing and rubber shortage, the orchestra has done well to establish so secure a position in the cultural life of the community.

That this newest of the town's civic enterprises should have won such a response in its first season is due in large measure to the vision, enthusiasm, and unremitting toil of its manager, Herbert L. Kinsolving. Not content with resting upon laurels already won, Mr. Kinsolving, who expects to leave Andover for the service after the current school year, has already announced that the Community Orchestra will present on December 4, Handel's "Messiah" as the first concert of the coming season.

As before, the orchestra will have the support of the Andover Choral Society, the Male Choir, and a quartet of soloists, of whom the leader of the Choir, J. Everett Collins, will be the basso. Details of next year's concert season will be announced in the fall.

COCHRAN CHAPEL SERVICE

The preacher at the service to be held at Cochran chapel, Phillips Academy, Sunday morning at 11:00, will be Rev. Theodore Cuyler Speers, minister of the Park Avenue Presbyterian Church, New York city. Rev. Mr. Speers will also speak at the graduation exercises of Abbot Academy Monday.

Richard Sutton of 119 Chestnut street, a student at Northeastern University was on the upperclass honor list for the second semester, it was announced recently.

WEDDINGS

McClellan-Curtis

A pretty wedding of local interest took place recently in Norfolk, when Miss Anita Deidamia Curtis, daughter of Mrs. E. Roelker Curtis of Norfolk and Charles Pelham Curtis, Jr., of Boston, became the bride of James Trumbull McClellan, son of Mrs. Frances P. McClellan of Orchard street. The marriage ceremony was performed at the Norfolk home of the bride's mother by Rev. Philemon F. Sturgis of St. Andrew's church, Wellesley. Mrs. Lewis Iselin, Jr., of New York, was matron of honor for her sister, and Mrs. Iselin's young daughter, Edith, was flower girl. William Grosvenor Congdon of Providence, R. I., was best man for Mr. McClellan.

The couple left on a short wedding trip, following a reception at the home of the bride's mother. They plan to make their home at Folly Cove, Lanesville.

ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED

Mr. and Mrs. Charles T. Wadlin of Lowell street announce the engagement of their daughter, Dorothy Mary, to Raymond Wilde, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Wildie, 80 Edgewood avenue, Methuen.

MARRIAGE INTENTIONS

Robert S. Willens, 64 Whittier street, and Shirley B. Ellon, 643 Ocean avenue, New London, Conn. Gordon Barber, 24 West Franklin street, Baltimore, Md., and Helen D. Nelson, 109 High street. H. Roger Turner, 21 Lawrence street, Malden, and Helen E. Brickett, 180 Main street.

King's Daughters Will Install Officers Monday

Next year's officers for the Courteous Circle of the King's Daughters of the South church will be installed Monday evening in the vestry. Supper will be served at 6:30, Mrs. Carl Elander being in charge of arrangements, and the installation will take place under the direction of Mrs. Thaxter Eaton. A devotional service prepared by Mrs. Fred G. Cheney will be held at 7:30.

Mrs. Clifford F. Chapman will serve again as leader next season, and the officers will be: Mrs. John A. Jenkins, vice-leader; Mrs. Harvey G. Turner, recording secretary; Miss Mary Mitchell, corresponding secretary; Mrs. William H. Gibson, treasurer; and Mrs. Marion Wilkin- son, auditor.

WARDENS TO MEET

About 150 more qualified wardens will receive their official armbands at a meeting Monday at 8:00 at the Memorial Auditorium. Since all other members of the warden corps will be on hand for the brief ceremony, other matters of common interest will be discussed, including the results of the recent tests and the part the air-raid wardens will take in the June 14 Flag Day parade.

All-Day Program Planned For Regional Garden Club Meeting

Six North Andover gardens will be open, next Tuesday afternoon, for inspection by visitors to the Northeast Regional meeting of the Massachusetts Garden Club Federation. The exhibition will conclude an interesting all-day program at the Essex County Agricultural School, Danvers, for which the hostess clubs will be Andover, Boxford, Danvers, Newburyport, North Andover and Topsfield. Members are asked to provide their own box lunches, but coffee and ice cream will be available.

Registration will begin at 10:00, with the registration fee of 25 cents. The rest of the program will take place as follows: 10:30, business meeting; 11:00, flower exhibit, with popular judging; 11:30, audible judging and criticism; 12:15, reception for speaker, guests and judges; 1:00, box luncheon; 2:15, address on "Up-to-the-minute Garden Defense Plans and Conservation," by Mrs. Ralph G. Swain of Brockton; 3:15, North Andover gardens on parade.

The flower exhibits will include the following classes: Class 1, arrangement of flowers suitable for a living room in an old New England mansion house (accessories permitted). Class 2, arrangement of flowering shrubs and spring flowers, showing Chinese influence (accessories permitted). Class 3, arrangement of wild or garden flowers suitable for a recreation room in a training camp (limited to six).

The North Andover gardens which will be open to members of the federation will be those of Mrs. John G. Coolidge, Mrs. George H. Gage, Russell Pyson, Mrs. Everett Pervere, Mrs. Murray Howe, and Miss Ruth Ely.

Local Radioman Closes Business For War Work

One of Andover's popular young radiomen closed his business for the duration yesterday, due to the exigencies of war. Alvin J. Zink, Jr., who has maintained a radio shop on Park street, and has been in charge of the police radio systems of the Andover and North Andover departments, has recently accepted a position under the War Department as research associate at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology.

Because of the nature of his work there, he will be obliged to suspend business here until the war is over. His work is not expected to interfere, however, with his duties as chief engineer for the police short-wave stations WEIL and WBRJ.

Mr. Zink has maintained his radio store here for the past three years. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin J. Zink, Sr., of Chester street, Ballardvale, graduated from Pynchard high school, and received his bachelor of science degree in electrical engineering from the University of North Carolina in 1936.

His brother, Foster C. Zink, who has been associated with him, is now a private in the U. S. army ski troops, First Division, 87th Infantry, and is stationed at Camp Roberts, California for the present. He is also a Pynchard graduate, was employed for a time with the Merrimack Mutual Insurance company, and is active in local Boy Scout circles.

Memorial Day-Saturday-May 30

The J. E. Greeley Company will be closed all day.

A reasonable request: We are requesting you, our customers, to give your orders in two parts as follows: first, the items which you wish to use on Friday, and second, the items which you wish to use on Saturday and Sunday. By so dividing the items, we can deliver your Friday order, Friday forenoon and your week-end order Friday afternoon.

We are asking this co-operation because we do not have the necessary number of men and trucks which would be required to deliver your entire wants for the three days at any one time.

Navy School at G.E.

Just one evidence of the cooperation between the armed services and our vast industrial army—a school for submarine electricians conducted at one General Electric factory.

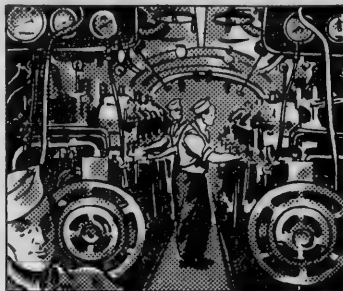

1. Electricity is vital to the running of every submarine. It does an amazing variety of important jobs, from turning the propeller to cooking the coffee.

2. For that reason, there must be well-trained electricians on every underwater craft. At this school, Navy electricians attend classes taught by G-E engineers.

3. and go out into the shops where they watch workmen construct the same kind of electric equipment that will some day be put in their charge.

4. This is but one proof of the thorough training which the U.S. Navy gives its men, so that the vital equipment of war will always be ready for action.

General Electric believes that its first duty as a good citizen is to be a good soldier.

WEST PARISH

ENJOY HOT DOG PARTY

The members of Mrs. John Brodhead's class of the West church Sunday school held a hot dog and hamburger party Saturday afternoon in rear of the Ward Property on Lowell street. Games were enjoyed following the roast. Those who attended were Constance Dow, Marilyn Duquid, Betty Haakensen, Barbara Lewis, Shirley Stevens and Dorothy Blomquist.

PLAN WEENIE ROAST

The Lafalot club will hold their monthly meeting on Tuesday evening, June 2, at the home of Miss Ebba Peterson of Greenwood road. Those attending are asked to come as early as possible, as a hot dog and weenie roast is to be enjoyed before the meeting.

WOMAN'S UNION TO MEET

The monthly meeting of the Woman's Union of the West church will be held in the vestry Wednesday afternoon at 2:30. William A. Trow will give a talk on "Historical Andover." The hostesses will be Mrs. Carl Stevens, Mrs. William Corliss and Mrs. Henry Kazaz.

REACHES AUSTRALIA

Word has been received by Mr. and Mrs. Robert Crockett of 117 Lowell street that their son P. F. C. Douglas Crockett, attached to the U. S. Army Engineers, has arrived in Australia. Pvt. Crockett has been in the Army Engineers since March, 1941, and was first stationed at Camp Edwards. He was formerly in the trucking business with his father.

Personals

Morris Matthews of Long Island, N. Y., is visiting his grandparents, Rev. and Mrs. Newman Matthews of High Plain road, and Mr. and Mrs. Fred McCollum of Lincoln street.

Mrs. Arthur R. Lewis has returned to her home on Lowell street after undergoing an operation at the Massachusetts General Hospital, Boston.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter F. Lewis of Chelmsford spent Saturday with relatives in the Parish.

Friends of Daniel Fitzpatrick of River road will be interested to know that he quietly celebrated his eighty-ninth birthday recently at his home.

Mrs. Jennie Grant has returned to her home in Lowell street after enjoying a short vacation with friends and relatives in Vermont.

Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Irvine are occupying the house on Lowell street formerly owned by Mr. and Mrs. Austin Wooley.

Registration Begins Monday

Registration begins Monday for children who are to enter the first grade in the local public schools this fall. It is requested that parents bring their children to the first-grade classroom in one of the schools at that time.

The schedule will be: Monday, 2:00, North school; Tuesday, 2:45, Shawsheen school; Wednesday, 2:00, S. C. Jackson; Thursday, 2:45, West Center; June 9, 2:45, Bradley; June 10, 2:45, Indian Ridge.

Pupils who will be six years old on or before next March 1 will be admitted if they pass a test showing they have a maturity equal to that of a child six years old on or before January 1.

News Of Old Andover

50 YEARS AGO. The selectmen appointed John B. Bailey and Nathan H. Perkins as policemen. School coal contracts, at $6.10 a long ton, were awarded John Cornell and H. M. Hayward. The Merrimack river was pretty high, its wharves and adjacent shore being completely under water. Eight Andover men were elected delegates to the state Prohibition convention in Worcester, expected to be a most convivial gathering. John Pray's wagons were to bring the Andover Band down to Ballardvale for that first open-air concert. Armour's famous soups (adv.) were to be given away to all interested housewives at the November clubhouse. The public park committee were still hunting around for a place to put it. And the Punched Alumni Association was planning a strawberry festival. G. C. Lyle sold his restaurant and variety store to Thomas E. Rhodes, the well-known music teacher. The combination of music and food must have come pretty close to our modern conception of a night club.

25 YEARS AGO. The new Home Guard was to take part in the Memorial Day parade, receiving their new uniforms for the occasion, and Andover's 21 surviving G. A. R. veterans were also to march. The first draft registration was planned for June 5, for men between 21 and 31. Frank L. Brigham, William B. Cheever, George A. Christie, Franklin H. Stacey, Rev. Frank A. Everett and Joseph B. Scott were among those volunteering as registrars. Robert T. Bushnell and his P. A. Dramatic club put on a Red Cross benefit. The Ringling Brothers were coming to Lynn, complete with 300 dancing girls, 400 arenic artists, 1009 wild animals, 41 elephants, 800 horses, 60 clowns. In fact, there may have been more people in the circus than there were in Lynn. The Baptist church was to hold a farewell service for its minister, Rev. William E. Lombard, soon to take a new pastorate in Haverhill. Christ church's Castle Talisenin, K. O. K. A., closed its season. James C. Soutar was re-elected president of the Free church Men's club.

10 YEARS AGO. The dedication of a German field-piece in the public park, presented to the town by the local V. F. W. post, was to be the main feature of the Memorial Day exercises. A special committee was formed to combat unemployment and dire poverty arising from the depression, in order that special appropriations by a special town meeting might be avoided. Marcelle Poirier's song and dance act was judged best in a local amateur contest. The League of Women Voters planned a horse and pet show on the Cornelius A. Wood estate in Shawsheen. Whistler's "Coast of Brittany" was exhibited at the Addison Gallery. As far as is known, no hidden portrait was included in it. Chief George A. Dane and Sergeant Leonard Saunders discovered that an innocent-looking banana truck passing through town was loaded up with bootleg likker. Allen Mills and his committee were getting ready for Punched's Junior prom. The Taxpayers' Association now had 602 members.

Moses, rector, will pay them due honor at this Sunday morning's service at 11:00, when he will read the complete roll of honor of the parish. Rev. Mr. Moses will also devote his sermon to a patriotic theme.

Miss Angle Dantos, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Dantos of Elm street, has been elected president of the Senior class at Nasson college in Springvale, Maine.

DEATHS

A longtime leader in Andover's industrial, civic and educational life passed away Saturday morning, when Henry A. Bodwell, 64, died at his home at 31 Morton street.

Mr. Bodwell took an active interest in the building of the present Punchard high school building in 1916-17, as a member of the local school committee. He was also a member of the first finance committee here, from 1919 to 1925, as well as of the Board of Public Works from 1931 to 1940. He served with the committee of public safety during World War I, and at the time of his death, was a member of the advisory board for Local Draft Board 3, and was in charge of plotting at the Andover report center.

All his life, he was connected with the old Smith and Dove company and its successor, the Ludlow Manufacturing Association. Starting in with Smith and Dove company as a young man, he had advanced to the position of treasurer when the firm transferred to the Ludlow Associates in 1928. Since then, he had been affiliated with the Boston branch of that concern.

He was born in Keene, N. H., but had resided here since childhood. Educated in the local schools, he was a graduate of Punchard high school with the class of 1896.

Mr. Bodwell was active in many local organizations, being past master of St. Matthew's lodge, A. F. and A. M., and member of the Square and Compass and Andover Service Club. He was an active member of South church, and served on its finance committee.

Survivors include his wife, Mrs. Eva C. Bodwell; a daughter, Miss Sally Bodwell; a brother, Charles, of Haverhill; and two sisters, Myra and Helen Bodwell of South Chatham.

The funeral was held from the late home Monday afternoon at 2:00, with services conducted there and at the grave by Dr. Alfred E. Stearns, headmaster-emeritus at Phillips Academy, and Rev. Frederick B. Noss, pastor of the South church. Interment was in the family lot in Spring Grove cemetery.

The bearers were Frank Buttrick, Chester W. Holland, Burton S. Flagg, Charles H. Eames, Harry Sellars, and Nathan C. Hamblin.

A well-known drugstore proprietor in Lawrence a score of years ago, and the author of numerous municipal improvements in that city, including the erection of the Bruce school and the building housing Engine 8 of the Lawrence fire department, Arthur F. Ryder, 83, died Thursday at his home on Andover street, Ballardvale, where he had resided for several years. A native of Malone, N. Y., he was the builder of the Ryder building at the corner of Essex street and Broadway, Lawrence.

Surviving him are his wife, Ella Wood Ryder, with whom he celebrated his 57th wedding anniversary last September; a daughter, Mrs. Helen R. Coon of Ballardvale; a brother, Ira, of Portland, Ore.; a sister, Mrs. Irma Scammon, also of Portland; six grandchildren, Eleanor, Arthur, Rowena and Howard Coon, Jr., all of Ballardvale, and Kenneth R., and John F. Pineo, Jr., of Metuchan, N. J.; two nieces and two nephews.

The funeral was held from the late home Saturday afternoon at 3:30, with services conducted by Rev. Dr. George F. Beecher, minister at First-Calvary Baptist church, Lawrence. Interment was in the family lot in Bellevue cemetery, Lawrence.

Word has been received here of the death of John Belknap, 61, on April 13 in Lakeport, Calif.

Mr. Belknap was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lyman Belknap, and at one time resided at 71 Central street. He attended the local public schools, and moved to California about 35 years ago.

There are no local survivors.

Eloquent Tribute Paid By Dr. Stearns

Dr. Alfred E. Stearns, headmaster-emeritus of Phillips Academy, delivered a stirring prayer Monday afternoon at the funeral of Henry A. Bodwell, so fitting to Dr. Stearns' own fine character as well as to that of Mr. Bodwell, that we take the liberty of printing it in full in these pages. The complete text:

"Eternal Spirit, in whom we live and move and have our very being, we bless Thee through the revelation of Thy Son, Our Lord and Master, we have been permitted to know Thee not only as our Creator, but as our Father and Friend, and can come to Thee with the simple trust and confidence of children. We bless Thee for the Christian conviction that lives lived with Thee and in Thee endure. Thou givest us these brief and incomplete mortal lives of ours; and Thou takest them only to enrich, and perfect, and glorify them for larger and still more abundant living. And we know that Thou must rejoice to welcome those who, in their earthly lives, have recognized the sacredness of their responsibilities; have bravely met Thy call of duty wherever and whenever that call has come; who have counted it a privilege to give themselves without stint in helpfulness to their fellowmen; who have revealed their true strength by the demands which life has made upon them; who in laboring with Thee have added to their strength and to the courage of their friends; and who at the end of their tasks meet Thee triumphant and unafraid.

"Forgive us our human questionings, and help us to overcome our hesitating unbeliefs. Enable us to glimpse through the temporary clouds of sorrow the brightness of the enduring light beyond. Permit us to feel the glowing thrill inspired by the knowledge that those whom we have loved and lost awhile have only secured at Thy hands deserved promotion and reward and the rich privilege of knowing and understanding Thy larger will for them. With them may we cast off our needless sorrows—and rejoice.

"We thank Thee with grateful hearts that as husband, father and friend this Thy servant, who has so lately answered Thy call, has so simply, so steadfastly, so naturally, and so sincerely lived his earthly life on that high plane to which his Master pointed him the way. We thank Thee for the privilege of the close contacts we have enjoyed with him; for the inspiration, for the cheer, for the renewal of courage we have owed to him. For happy associations, for blessed memories, and for the fuller understanding of the meaning and the deeper values of true friendship which, through his guileless life, he taught us, we bless Thee, O God. "To Thy special keeping we would commend those of this family circle bereft for the moment of the familiar presence of one so justly dear and so deeply loved. Bless, comfort and strengthen them in this hour of natural sorrow, and in Thy great mercy and compassion lift their eyes and their thoughts above and beyond the passing moments of distress to the enduring realms where Thy perfect light shines undimmed, where sorrow and sadness have no place, and where the angels' song mingles with Thine own glad and restoring word of welcome to a good and faithful servant as he enters triumphantly on the larger and more achieving life."

Abbot Academy Notes

The last days of the session 1941-42 are passing in such rapid succession that the Seniors are trying hard to hold back the inevitable sands of time. Final examinations began Tuesday and will end Friday morning. Commencement festivities will begin that night when the underclassmen will execute English country dances on the Circle and the whole school will parade and sing from Abbot Hall steps for the visiting families and returned alumnae. The singing will be led by Jeanne Bowersox, school song leader.

Saturday morning at chapel the final awards and honors of the year will be announced and conferred.
At this time the Cum Laude members-elect will be inducted into membership in that society, and the name of the winning athletic team—Gargoyle or Griffin—will be announced to a group of breathless combatants who have competed all year for the cause of their respective teams. Following the "last chapel," results of examinations will be announced, and the various classes will step another year ahead.

The baccalaureate sermon will be given by the Rev. James T. Cleland of Amherst college, on Sunday at 10:45 a.m. in the South Church. On Sunday evening at 7:30 o'clock the following program will be presented by students in the Department of Music:

Hungarian Dance (Brahms)—
Betty Jean England and Elsie Wil-lams.

Quis est homo from Stabat Mater (Rossini)—Alva Houston and Louise Leslie.

Prelude and Fugue in B flat (Bach)—Jane Bittel.

Dr. Gradus ad Parnassum (Debussy)—Nancy McIvor.

The Green Linnet (Ehiman), Down by the Sally Gardens (Donovan), and Elfantown (Bantock)—
The Choir.

Pomp and Circumstance March
No. 2 (Elgar)—Edna Nutton.

Rosemary, and April (Bridge)—
Alva Houston.

Slumber Song (Gretchaninoff),
The Nightingale (Alabieff), God of

All Nature (Tschaikowsky)—Alva
Houston, Jeanne Bowersox and Florence Shaw.

Rippling Water (Holst), The Leather Bottle (arranged by Delaney), In the Hay (Provencal), Prayer from Hansel and Gretel (Humperdinck), Arkansas Traveller (arranged by Delaney)—The Fidelio Society.

Serenade and Waltz Song from Romeo and Juliet (Gounod)—Elizabeth Lytle.

Aufschwung (Schumann)—Mary Jane Kurth.

Widmung (Franz), Die Allmacht
(Schubert)—Florence Shaw.

Valzer de Musetta from La Boheme (Puccini), Adele's Lauching Song from The Bat (Strauss)—Alva Houston.

Concerto in A minor for piano and orchestra, first movement, (Schumann)—Frances Flint.

Graduation will take place in the South Church on Monday at 10:15, following the tree and ivy planting ceremonies by the students. The commencement address will be given by the Rev. Theodore Cuyler Speers, D.D., of New York City. Because of the war and the exigencies which the entrance of the U. S. A. last December has brought to the country, five students who had planned to take a fifth year of preparatory school training, and who were to have been Seniors at Abbot next year, were accepted by major colleges and will therefore be allowed to graduate from Abbot this year. The diploma will probably be awarded to sixty-two students, among them Marilyn Barlow, Marjorie Dean and Margaret Mc-Farlin, of Andover, Ethel Ann Bolton of North Andover, Gloria Caldarone and Janice Lenane of Lawrence.

Last Saturday was to have been the Spring field day when finals in all sports for the spring term would be played off, but because of the weather the baseball game was the only athletic feature of the day.
This was very skillfully and well played with a score of 8 to 2 for the Griffins. Andover and vicinity were represented on the teams by Priscilla Stevens as pitcher for the Gargoyles; Edna Nutton as first baseman, and Anne Locke, fielder, for the Griffins.

Yesterday afternoon (Wednesday) the final match in tennis singles was played off between Molly Hubbard, Gargoyle, and Mary Bertucio, Griffin. The same two girls played off the finals on Fall field day, and because the first match drew out so far into the afternoon without any decision being reached, it had to be re-played several days later, when Molly Hubbard, of Erie, Pa., was the winner. Mary Bertucio was last year's champion. Finals in tennis doubles, archery, ping pong, croquet, and deck tennis have also been held.
The winners—a secret until Saturday morning!

On Tuesday the school had the unusual opportunity of having Father Coleman, of All Hallows Church by the Tower, London, speak at a vesper service. So impressed were the students with the breadth and depth of Father Coleman's viewpoint, by the strength of his faith in the face of disaster and tragedy, and by the straightforward simplicity with which he answered their questions, that even in the midst of examination study hours on Tuesday evening many of them lingered to talk and to discuss with him further the many problems which they are having to face in these uncertain times.

To Our Subscribers Who Have Boys

in

The Service

• We shall be very happy to send to your boy each week's issue of the Townsmen without charge, for the duration. If any parent who is receiving the Townsmen on a mail subscription basis will merely call the office and give us the mailing address of the young man, we shall see that he receives the news of Andover each week until the war is over. If you have more than one boy serving Uncle Sam, well—you deserve to have each of them get it—and we'll do that too. There is absolutely no charge.

• This applies only to those parents who now are on the mailing list. Future subscribers will receive the same gift as of the time their subscription starts.
